Single Equality Scheme 2015

Introduction

This Single Equality Scheme for schools in North Yorkshire provides a format for addressing the statutory duties of the Equality Act 2010 and The Children and Families Act 2014. This supersedes and brings together all previous statutory duties in relation to race, gender and disability and also addresses the duty to promote community cohesion, thus meeting the school's statutory duties in these areas.

The scheme also highlights how our school has worked with and listened to the staff, pupils, parents and carers to inform development of action plans and the need and commitment required to ensure the scheme is a success. This is underpinned by a commitment to promoting positive relationships and understanding between all groups within our school community.

This document sets out how pupils with the following protected characteristics (previously known as equality strands) will be protected in our school from harassment and discrimination:-

- disability
- gender
- race
- religion and belief
- sexual orientation
- gender reassignment
- pregnancy and maternity

The law on disability discrimination is different from the rest of the Equalities Act in a number of ways. In particular, it works in only one direction – that is to say, it protects disabled people but not people who are not disabled. This means that schools are allowed to treat disabled pupils more favourably than non-disabled pupils, and in some cases are required to do so, by making reasonable adjustments to put them on a more level footing with pupils without disabilities. The definition of what constitutes discrimination is more complex. Provision for disabled pupils is closely connected with the regime for children with special educational needs. Chapter 4 of the Act deals in detail with disability issues.

This scheme extends however to cover all aspects of vulnerability, including those associated with socio-economic factors (e.g. pupils from low income families).

As well as delivering high quality services to our pupils, the school is also committed to being a good employer and as such this scheme outlines how we meet our varied duties in terms of recruitment and employment practices. We are also committed to be fully inclusive of all community users, including parents and carers. As such, this scheme therefore also sets out how we will work to overcome any discrimination related to the other protected characteristics:-

- Age*
- Being married or in a civil partnership

*A person's age is also a protected characteristic in relation to employment and the Act extends this (except for children) to the provision of goods and services, but age as a protected characteristic does not apply to pupils in schools. Schools therefore remain free to admit and organise children in age groups and to treat pupils in ways appropriate to their age and stage of development without risk of legal challenge, even in the case of pupils over the age of 18.

The impact of this scheme is reported on annually.

Aims of the single equality scheme

- To articulate the school's commitment to equality which permeates all school policies and practices
- To ensure that everyone who belongs to, or comes into contact with, our school community is valued and respected
- To promote equality of opportunity and eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment or victimisation
- To comply with statutory duties under equalities legislation in one document

Purpose of the Equality Scheme

This equality scheme is the school's response to the specific and general duties in the current equality legislation, which has been brought together under the Equality Act 2010 (see appendix 1). It is an attempt to capture how the school is systematically establishing and implementing good practice in equality and diversity across all areas of school life. This includes a response to all aspects of social identity and diversity.

This Equality Scheme sets out how the school will:

- eliminate discrimination
- eliminate harassment or victimisation related to any aspect of social identity or diversity;
- promote equality of opportunity;
- promote positive attitudes to all aspects of social identity and diversity;
- encourage participation by disabled people and people representing different aspects of social identity in public life;
- take steps to take account of difference even where that involves treating some people more favourably than others;
- take proportionate action to address the disadvantage faced by particular groups of pupils.

Planning to eliminate discrimination and promote equality of opportunity

This scheme is underpinned by the core belief that all children and young people belong to their local community and share the same rights to membership of that community and a quality education. We set equality objectives with associated actions which are outlined within our equalities action plan that accompanies this Equality Scheme. Our plan identifies what we will be doing over the coming year to make our school more accessible to the whole community, irrespective of background or need. (see appendix 2)

It encompasses our duties to promote positive outcomes in relation to race, gender and disability, but also identifies actions to address other social identities. It encompasses our anticipatory duties to plan ahead for the reasonable adjustments (reasonable and proportionate steps to overcome barriers that may impede some pupils) we need to make to be best placed to help disabled pupils who come to our school.

This action plan replaces the school's Disability Accessibility Plan for the school (previously required under the planning duties in the Disability Discrimination Act) as it sets out how the school will increase access to education for disabled pupils, alongside other protected groups, in the three areas required:

- increasing the extent to which disabled pupils can participate in the school curriculum;
- improving the physical environment of the school to enable disabled pupils to take better advantage of education, benefits, facilities and services provided
- improving the availability of accessible information to disabled pupils.

The action plan is renewed annually and progress towards the equality objectives within it is reported on regularly to governors, and this information is published at least annually. Equality objectives have been identified through consultation with key stakeholders. Our equality objectives are published at least once every four years.

This action plan is understood and implemented by all staff and is available on the school website. It is available in different formats and in different languages on request to the school office.

Our school has regard to the need to provide adequate resources for implementing plans and must regularly review them. (NB An accessibility plan may be a freestanding document but may also be published as part of another document such as the school development plan.)

OFSTED inspection may include the school's accessibility plan as part of their review.

School Aim:- "To ensure every child is helped to achieve his or her full potential in a safe environment."

Equality Objectives 2015-19

1. Review the current offering and participation in extra-curricular activities, extending activities as required, and encouraging participation by all pupils including those with special educational needs.
2. Regularly identify and address any gaps in the performance of disadvantaged pupils and those with SEND with their cohort.
3. Increase understanding of different cultural and religious views and lifestyles and address any inappropriate behaviour, for instance homophobic or bullying incidents, including on-line.
4. Provide girls and boys with the same opportunities.
5. Identify and accommodate any specific requirements of children at Langton School, including medical, social and cultural needs.

What kind of a school are we?

School Vision and Values

The school's vision and values statement reflects the school's ambitions for all its pupils and has been developed with the whole community. It refers to the key requirements set out in the National Curriculum Inclusion Statement for developing an inclusive curriculum: setting suitable learning challenges; responding to pupils' diverse learning needs; overcoming potential barriers to learning and assessment for individuals and groups of pupils.

The school statement also embraces the North Yorkshire Inclusion statement which emphasises that individuals and groups of learners who may be vulnerable to exclusion, marginalisation and underachievement are identified and receive targeted provision to ensure their presence, participation and achievement.

School Context

The nature of the school population and context to inform action planning for the equality scheme

Factors of the geographical location of the school January 2016:-

Langton Community Primary School is situated in a small rural village. As well as children coming from the many small villages that surround the school, over 50% of pupils come from outside of catchment with the vast majority of these coming from the nearby towns of Norton and Malton.

This is a small primary school with 70 pupils on roll. Significantly fewer pupils claim a free school meal than is usual nationally. Indeed currently 1% pupils is noted as Pupil Premium (Ever 6). Children start school in the Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) in the September after their fourth birthday.

The proportion of pupils who have learning difficulties and/or disabilities is lower than in other schools, as is the proportion with a statement of special educational needs. The identified needs include dyslexia. The number of pupils coming from minority ethnic backgrounds is again significantly lower than in most schools and there are no children whose first language is not English.

The school has undergone significant change over the last few years. The previous headteacher left at the end of the last academic year due to promotion. A new headteacher was appointed in the spring and started at the school in September. A further 2 members of the teaching staff left during the summer term 2015 and 2 new teachers were appointed and started in September 2015.

Currently, the school has three mixed year group classes;
Class 1 - Reception, Year 1 and Year 2
Class 2 – Years 3 and 4
Class 3 – Years 5 and 6

The school had an OFSTED inspection on 24-25th September and achieved 'Good'. This was in the third week at the school for the headteacher and 2 new members of the teaching staff.

The training taken to position the school well for the equality and diversity agenda.

- The specific medical needs of pupils are understood by staff and school policies such as 'Supporting Children with Medical Needs' and 'The Early Years Foundation Stage Policy' are reviewed regularly and published on the school website.
- The head teacher who is also the SENCo regularly reviews planning & progress for all children, including those with special educational needs (SEN) and children having free school meals (FSM).
- Staff and pupils are conversant with the Behaviour Policy which is followed rigorously. Behaviour is good in all environments (see eg Ofsted report) .
- British Values and an awareness of different religions form part of the curriculum,
- Regular training for staff providing SENCO updates and medical, faith and belief, language needs;
- Termly staff meetings to update on pupil needs and training opportunities e.g. epipen training provided as required;
- Governor training provided to ensure that a minimum of two members of the Governing body are trained in fair recruitment practices;
- The SEN link governor is fully up to date in current SEN practice.
- At least one governor involved in recruitment has completed the fair recruitment training. The governors responsible for Safeguarding and SEN have also completed the relevant training.
- The Headteacher has undertaken Wrap 3 Prevent Training. Staff and Governors are completing the online Prevent training – all to complete this by May 2016.

School provision

Examples of reasonable adjustments the school makes as a matter of course

We aim to provide all our pupils with the opportunity to succeed, and to reach the highest level of personal achievement.

To do this, the school will:

- provide equality of access for all pupils and prepare them for life in a diverse society
- use materials that reflect a range of cultural backgrounds, without stereotyping
- use materials to promote a positive image of and attitude towards disability and disabled people
- promote attitudes and values that will challenge discriminatory behaviour
- provide opportunities for pupils to appreciate their own culture and religions and celebrate the diversity of other cultures

- use a range of sensitive teaching strategies when teaching about different cultural and religious traditions
- develop pupils' advocacy skills so that they can detect bias, challenge discrimination, leading to justice and equality
- ensure that the whole curriculum covers issues of equality and diversity
- all subject leaders promote and celebrate the contribution of different cultures to the subject matter
- seek to involve all parents in supporting their child's education
- provide educational visits and extra-curricular activities that involve all pupil groups
- take account of the performance of all pupils when planning for future learning and setting challenging targets
- make best use of all available resources to support the learning of all groups of pupils
- identify resources and training that support staff development.

From September 2012 schools and local authorities have a duty to supply auxiliary aids and services as reasonable adjustments where these are not being supplied through Special Educational Needs (SEN) statements or from other sources. Additional high needs funding may be available on application to the local authority. Learning environments will be adapted or enhanced to suit the needs of individual cohorts.

- There is a consistently high expectation of all pupils regardless of their gender, ethnicity, disability, religion or belief, sexual orientation, age or any other recognised area of discrimination. All pupils are encouraged to improve on their own achievements and not to measure themselves against others. Parents are also encouraged to view their own children's achievements in this light. Our successful learning environment includes:
- Teacher enthusiasm is a vital factor in achieving a high level of motivation and good results from all pupils.
- Adults in school will be good, positive role models in their approach to all issues relating to equality of opportunity.
- A high priority is given to the provision in school for pupils with special educational needs and/or a disability.
- All pupils' learning needs, including the more able, are met by carefully planned, delivered and assessed schemes of work.
- The School will provide an environment in which all pupils have equal access to all facilities and resources.
- All pupils are encouraged to be actively involved in their own learning.
- A range of teaching methods is used throughout the school to ensure that effective learning takes place at all stages for all pupils.
- Consideration is given to the physical learning environment – both internal and external, including displays and signage.

Outcomes for pupils

Outcomes for pupils are analysed against social identity issues, i.e. gender, ethnicity, disability, faith background, and aspects of vulnerability identified by the school. This is compared with the outcomes made for all pupils. This is recorded in the School Self evaluation Form (SEF).

These processes form part of the school's equality impact assessment processes through working towards the Inclusion Quality Mark. This will support us in determining the impact of our provision on improving outcomes for identified pupils. In line with statutory requirements all new policies as well as existing policies and functions are evaluated for the impact they have, in consultation with identified pupils and parents/carers.

Involvement Processes

Policies are vital to identify and consolidate thinking regarding appropriate provision for pupils, however, they are often viewed as an end, when they should be seen as a process - always evolving in response to changes and evidence from impact assessments. When developing this Equality Scheme, the school is clear that this is a process which must be informed by the involvement of all participants such as pupils, parents, school staff, governors and external agencies. This will ensure that the school gleans insights into the barriers faced by people from different social identity backgrounds and learns the best ways to overcome such barriers. This Scheme will be informed, therefore, by:

- the views and aspirations of pupils themselves from different social identity backgrounds;
- the views and aspirations of parents of pupils from different social identity backgrounds;

- the views and aspirations of staff from different social identity backgrounds;
- the views and aspirations of members of the community and other agencies, including voluntary organisations, representing different social identity backgrounds;
- the priorities in the North Yorkshire Children and Young People's Plan.

Mechanisms for involvement

At this school the following mechanisms will ensure the views of pupils inform the Equality Scheme and action plan:

The school will ensure that pupil voice is taken into account for example through;

- School council;
- Pupil voice questionnaires
- Individual interviews with pupils involved in incidents of a discriminatory nature or bullying related to discrimination;
- Individual interviews with pupils experiencing reasonable adjustments;
- Growing Up in North Yorkshire Pupil Survey

At this school the following mechanisms will ensure the views of staff inform the Equality Scheme and action plan:

The school will ensure that staff voice is taken into account for example through;

- Exit interviews with staff;
- Regular meetings with union representatives as required;
- Regular staff meetings with specific agenda items;
- Individual discussions with staff as a part of performance management.

At this school the following mechanisms will ensure the views of parents and the community inform the Equality Scheme and action plan:

The school will ensure that parent and community voice is taken into account for example through;

- Welcoming parents and the community into school so that they are involved in policy development.
- Parent Questionnaires
- Feedback through the Governing Body meetings;
- Feedback through the PTA meetings;
- Feedback from adults using the school beyond the school day;

The school's action plan will focus on developing the involvement of pupils, staff and parents from different social identity backgrounds over the three years of this Scheme. We will consider varying the times, methods and the venues for this involvement to ensure the best possible attendance and ensure views can be heard. This way the school will learn what works and the involvement of pupils, staff and parents will improve and deepen over time.

Making it happen

Equality Legislation and Guidance

This equality scheme responds to the current equalities legislation.

- The Equality Act 2010 is the overarching legislation for all equality duties.

The act serves two main purposes:

- a) To harmonise discrimination law;
- b) To strengthen the law to support progress on equality.

The act supersedes or strengthens the following acts and regulations:

- The Equal Pay Act 1970
- The Sex Discrimination Act 1975
- The Race Relations Act 1976
- The Disability Discrimination Act 1995
- The Employment Equality (Religion & Belief and Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2003
- The Employment Equality (Age) Regulations 2006
- The Equality Act 2006 Part 2
- The Equality Act (Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2007
- The SEN Code of Practice 2001

Overview of previous equalities legislation which has been harmonised and strengthened by Equality Act 2010:

- Race Relations Act (RRA) 1976/2000 statutory positive duty to promote racial equality, promote good race relations and eliminate unlawful racial discrimination;
- Sex Discrimination Act (SDA) 1975 (and Regulations 1999), Gender Equality Duty 2007 statutory positive duty to promote gender equality and eliminate unlawful gender discrimination;
- Employment Equality (religion or belief) (sexual orientation) Regulations 2003 extended to education, Equality Act (Part 2) 2007
The Act sets out that it is unlawful for schools to discriminate against a person:
 - a) in the terms on which it offers to admit him/her as a pupil;
 - b) by refusing to accept an application to admit him/her as a pupil, or
 - c) where he/she is a pupil of the establishment:
 - i) in the way in which it affords him/her access to any benefit, facility or service,
 - ii) by refusing him/her access to a benefit, facility or service,
 - iii) by excluding him/her from the establishment,
 - iv) by subjecting him/her to any other detriment.
- Disability Discrimination Act (DDA) 1995/2005 statutory positive duty to promote equality of opportunity for disabled people: pupils, staff, parents, carers and other people who use the school or may wish to, and eliminate unlawful discrimination;
- Education and Inspections Act 2006, duty to promote community cohesion.
By 'community cohesion' the school is endorsing and adopting the definition provided by Alan Johnson, 2006, as:
"working towards a society in which there is a common vision and sense of belonging by all communities; a society in which the diversity of people's backgrounds and circumstances is appreciated and valued; a society in which similar life opportunities are available to all; and a society in which strong and positive relationships exist and continue to be developed in the workplace, in schools and in the wider community.”
